

Faculty of International Relations of Belarusian State University
The Baltic University Programme at Uppsala University

INFORMATION LETTER

INTERNATIONAL RESEARCH SEMINAR

«BALTIC SEA REGION: COOPERATION WITHOUT LIMITS?»

Minsk, October 29, 2020

The Faculty of International Relations invites researchers, experts, teachers, and PhD students from the BUP member universities to take part in the research seminar «BALTIC SEA REGION: COOPERATION WITHOUT LIMITS?», which will be held in the frameworks of the XIXth International Scientific Conference «Belarus in Modern World».

The research seminar will be devoted to the role of Republic of Belarus in the Baltic Sea Region, current problems and challenges of international relations in the Baltic Sea region, politics and cooperation, economics and sustainable development of the region; tourism and history of the Baltic Sea Region.

Who can apply? Researchers, Experts, Teachers, PhD students

Deadline: September 20, 2020 (registration for on-line participation)

Application:

To take part in the seminar, please, fill in the form and submit your abstract (no more than 500 words) on the following link: http://conf.bsu.by/belarus_in_the_modern_world1

Application will be opened till September 20, 2020.

Invitation and the programme of the research seminar will be sent to the participants after the scientific review and acceptance of the abstracts for the participation. Declined materials are not to be returned.

Participation in the conference:

BUP has possibility to cover accommodation (2 nights 28-30 October 2020) and food at place for 10 representatives from the BUP member universities selected by the scientific committee for participation. Please observe, reservation will be done at place, no monetary compensation possible.

Official language: English.

Publication of materials:

In case you are accepted for participation in the conference you are welcomed to submit the full text article in English till October 1, 2020 (the deadline will be prolonged). All the articles will be reviewed. The best materials (articles) of the seminar will probably have possibility to be published in the international journal. More information about publication will be given after the selection procedure. Organization Committee has the right to decline the articles of poor scientific quality and plagiarism.

Regarding the participation issues, please, write to: centis@bsu.by

Official site: http://conf.bsu.by/belarus_in_the_modern_world1

